

The Meeker Sportsman Club Presents

C. DANIEL BOLING

Daniel Boling, a singer/songwriter with a storyteller's eye for detail. His songs are inhabited by interesting characters drawn from Daniel's life, family and friends: the vagabond running off with a tiny circus to tour the West; an aging Viet Nam veteran looking back with surprise at his departed youth; a young rancher inheriting his grandfather's nearly worn out range-land and hoping he can hold on and live up to the legacy; a passenger on Flight 93 calling his wife to say goodbye – and his finger-picked guitar and banjitar support a good, clear tenor voice that evokes his characters' emotions perfectly.
